AT THE CAPITOL

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE TO-DAY,

O'NEILL AND FLOWER HAVE A TILT

Over the Resolution to Remove Gen. Grant's Remains.

WRANGLE OVER THE CONGER LARD BILL

Substitute for the Torrey Bankruptcy Bill Reported -- The Opposition to the Eight-Hour Measure.

In the Senate, after the adoption of Mr. Aldrich's memorandum regulating the order of debate and voting on the Tarlif bill, the conference report on the Sundry Civil bill was presented and Allison explained the report, which, after some discussion, was agreed to.

There was less than a quorum present when the House met this morning and a call of the House was ordered. A friends insisted that it came up as un-finished business, as it had reached the stage when the previous question was ordered, when the House adjourned last Saturday for lack of a quorum. Its opponents antagonized it with the Options bill, contending the Lard bill had had its day in court and could not come up again, particularly as the Options bill was the special order for Speaker's decision was sustained, but as no quorum voted, that didn't count and a call of the House was ordered.

Want a Better Wage,

In the Senate to-day Mr. Blair presented a memorial from the female omamendment pending. In the mean-time, Mr. Blair moved to amend the resolution by adding after the word "liquor" the words "and their use as a beverage." This would permit them to be used for mechanical and art pur The Eight-Hour Bill, in the House, has been indorsed by nearly every labor organization in the country, and is a perfectly just and meritorious measure, yet there are several leading members opposed to Mr. Cannon of Illinois, on the Republican side, and Mr. Blount, on the Demo cratic side, are its bitterest opponents. The bill, however, will pass if it is given a fair chance in spite of its powerful opponents. It will come up when-ever the Committee on Labor is called. This rests very largely with the Speaker.

General O. B. Wilcox, governor the Soldiers' Home, was at the Capito to day, and had a long talk with Mr O'Neill, in which he urged the propriety of removing General Grant's remains to the Soldiers' Home Instead o to Arlington. He falled to bring Mr O'Neill to his way of thinking, however housand people, of whoma large maority were farmers, gathered here yes terday to hear an address by Congressman Mills of Texas on the tariff question. Previous to the address the Congressman held a reception of an hour's duration in the hotel pariors. In his speech Mr. Mills did not confine his re-marks to the tariff slone, but found thus o express his opinion on the Lodge force bill, which he characterized as one of the most stroctous and malignest pieces of sectional legislation that had been attempted since the war, and clearly showed that it is a measure de-vised by a decaying political party to assure them of continued control by suppressing a free ballot in the Southern States. The farmers cheered until they were hourse, when Mr. Mills concluded.

MILLS ON THE STUMP.

TELLING HARNOIS FARMERS ABOUT THE TARIFF AND LODGE BILLS.

Mr. Rennedy Will Appear To-night, Mr. Harry Kennedy, the ventriloquist, who was unable to appear last night at the New National Theatre on account of the illness of his wife, will positively appear to-night.

The Nonesuch,

One of the most delightful picules of the season was given last night at Rabe's Washington Park by the None-such Pleasure Club of East Washington. The committee having charge of the uffulr consisted of the following-mined enterprising gentlemen: George Lewis, Frank McCathran, August Rhiechardt, William McNelly and Mock Diver Hugh Dyer.

on the Hill," in Washington, resides, as a guest, a malden lady, cultured and clever. Like some other nice people, she is rather sensitive on the subject of age, and this of course, was the subject of some quizzing among the thicker-skinned boarders. The blank left at the house by the engineeratus was spread out on the parior table and the lomates requested to fill in the various spaces as to their antecedents, etc.
Storecy was of course, out of the question, and considerable eurosity was evinced as to how our ancient mailen would treat the query as to her age.

When her turn came she was equal to the emergency. She quietly filled in all the desired information, and when the cager eyes around scanned the "age column" they found they could make nothing of it. Everything ease was written out in a neat, clear hand, but here they were stumped.

'Why, Miss Arabella,' said the land-lady, smiling sweetly, 'I am afraid the enumerator will not be able to make this out," pointing to the item in ques-

'That?" said Miss Arabella placidly. 'Oh, that is written in German, you know, and if he can't read it they can at the office, of course." And she calmly retired, well aware that not a soul in the house but herself understood a word of German.

Laying a Corner-Stone,

Yesterday afternoon the corner-stone of the Niles Chapel, on Third street, between New York avenue and L street northwest, was laid with appropriate ceremonies. The ceremonies were conducted by the Grand Lodge of Colored Masons of the District under the direction of Grand Master Charles H. Lemon, assisted by seventy-five members of the order. Remarks were made by Grand Master Lemon, Revs. J. W. Luckett, W. S. Simens and Chaplain Dado. lain Dade.

A Dangerous Salcon-Mr. Daniel O'Connor, residing on Four-and a half street southwest, made complaint this afternoon to Commissioner Robert of a galoon on Four-anda-half street near Louse alley, kept by a Mrs. Hennessey. Mr. O'Connor claims that himself and wife have frequently been insuited and almost robbed by the frequenters of the saloor. Colonel Robert referred the matter to Major

A Costly Carpet,

From the New York Sun. Brunton vs. Maple & Co. presents an nteresting case just decided in England. Mrs. Brunton had a Persian carpet for which her husband had paid x1,000. Wishing it cleaned, she won to see Mr. Maple, who keeps a great furnishing establishment, and he agreed From the to clean it, the value of the carpet and to circular treatment being impressed upon him fully by Mrs. Brunton. Made gave it to a cleaner named Ander on, and he in turn sent it to a man who ived in two rooms with his wife and our children, and who was to receive 12.50 for cleaning it, Maple charging Mrs. Brunton 10 per cent, on that price, ireland cleaned the carpet with benvine. Then he hung it up to dry and one of his children accidentally set it on fire and it was burned. The jury gave Mrs. Brunton £1,000.

Waiters of High Lineage, From the Circinnat Commercial Gazet

There is a saloon-keeper near Ninth and Walnut who has had half a dozen poverty-stricken sons of noble German families employed as walters in his place. An alleged "count" or two, a couple of sons of German "barons", wearing white aprons and watching for the cry "Zwei bies," have been features of the saloon during the past year. A patron of the place says that the pro-prietor was a republican in the Father and and that he takes pleasure in havors serve him to mental capacities.

The National Delicit.

From the Micon Telegraph. The Republicans have a great deal of audacity, but they will not willingly go to the country on such a record. The party found the Treasury overflowing with money, and the revenues largely in excess of the needs of the Government. It cannot hope for popular up-proval of a policy which empties the Treesury, renders the revenues inadaquate and fucreases taxation.

A Blaine Phonograph.

In noticing the autouncement that Mr. Blaine will make no speeches in the campaigns of this year, a Western journal suggests that his most recent deliverance might be made to do duty for him. Speken into a phonograph and ground out at the rural mentings, this speech would be highly effective: "There is not a section or line in the en-tire (Tariff) bill that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork."

A Divided Bours.

From the Ousage Patindion. It is Harrison against Quay now. Harrison has considered the Lodge Force bill as a distinctively Administration measure, and he is reported to be greatly argued with Quay for pro-posing to lay it on the shelf in the Senate. It looks as if a bitter contest a laspending between two factions of

From the Landon Stor. At a dinner where many notable folks were present the topic of the family name of the English royalties came up. The question as to that name was pu-The question as to that name was put to a celebrated historian, who replied: "Guelph, of course." It was pointed out that, although the royal families are Guelphs by descent, her Majesty's mar-riage with Prince Albert must have the effect which the marriage of a lady has in all other cases and that the surname of the present house must be the Prince Consert's. "But what is the surname Simple, but staggering. No one knew. All guessed and all were wrong. It turned out, however, that the correct name was Wettin.
